Dear Everyone:

I made this chart to the best of my ability with the information from those who answered me. If you have a problem with scheduling, it is your responsibility to find a replacement and notify me in the office of your replacement. This will be the only schedule you will receive unless I receive such major changes that I have to make a revision. I will no longer be sending out the weekly reminders. We are trying to cut costs and better utilize my time. You will have this copy, access to the one on the office bulletin board, the office door, in each Sunday bulletin and I will post it on the church website (www.stmarysprovo.org).

For your readings, you can access the website* that Jessica sent to you to get your weekly readings (RCL). You may also come to the office and I will give you the Today's Readings for the Sundays you are assigned. Just tell me the ones you need and I will pull them for you. As of today, I have them through July 19. The others will be coming in the next few weeks. The Prayers of the People are the only ones that I cannot give you ahead of time. All of you are experienced enough readers, though, to be able to come to church a little early and read over them in the bulletin before services.

Take care and have a good day!

Michelle

*Excerpt from Jessica's email to you:

“The readings each week may be found by googling "the lectionary page" or pasting <http://www.io.com/~kellywp/> into your browser. Click on the month; click on the RCL readings and psalm for the given Sunday. If there is a choice of a first or second lesson, consult with Michelle. We will almost always use the selection printed in "Today's Readings.”
